OUR VISION

We Are is an anti-bullying campaign aimed at shining a spotlight on our connection to other people and creating a space to reflect on how our personal actions affect these people.

Whether you have been a victim of bullying, know someone who has been bullied, or have been the bully yourself, we are all connected to this issue in some way. We Are emphasizes that the solution to the problem of bullying starts with each one of us. As individuals, we can choose to treat people well and encourage others to do the same.

WE ARE UNITED. Together we are strong.

WE ARE IN CONTROL. We decide how we treat others and how we respond to how we're treated.

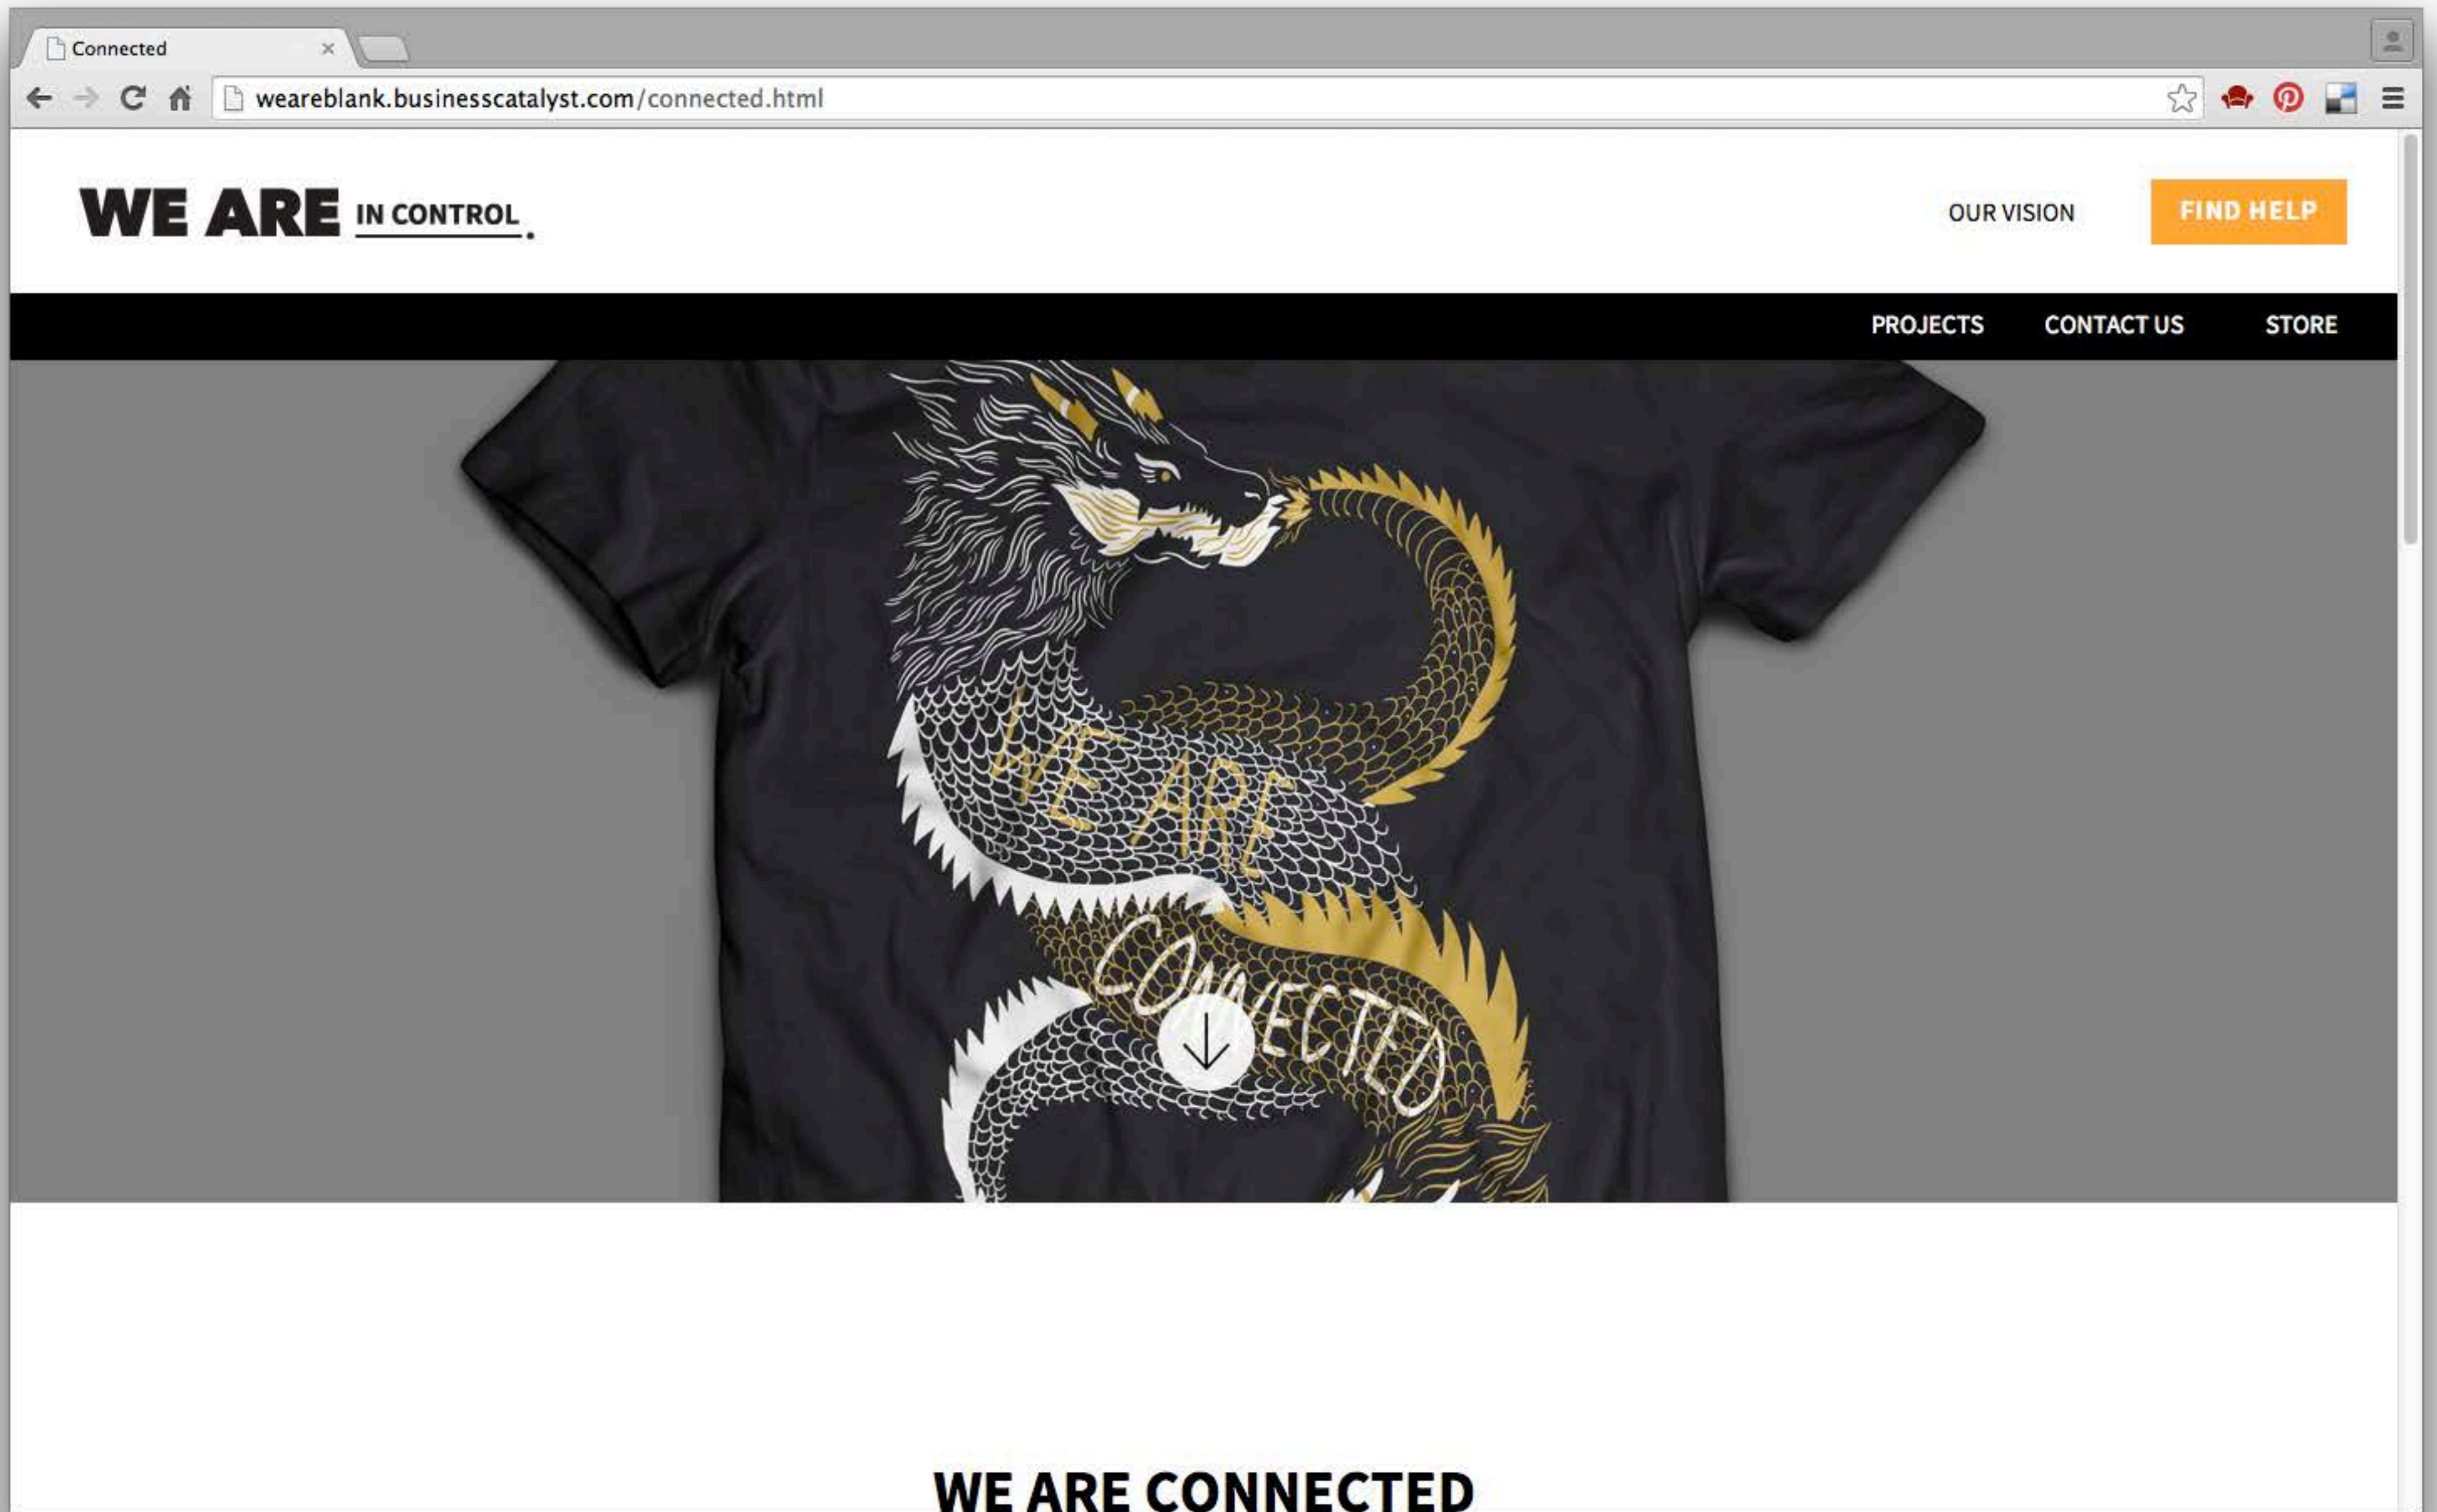

WE ARE WORTH IT. No one deserves to be bullied.

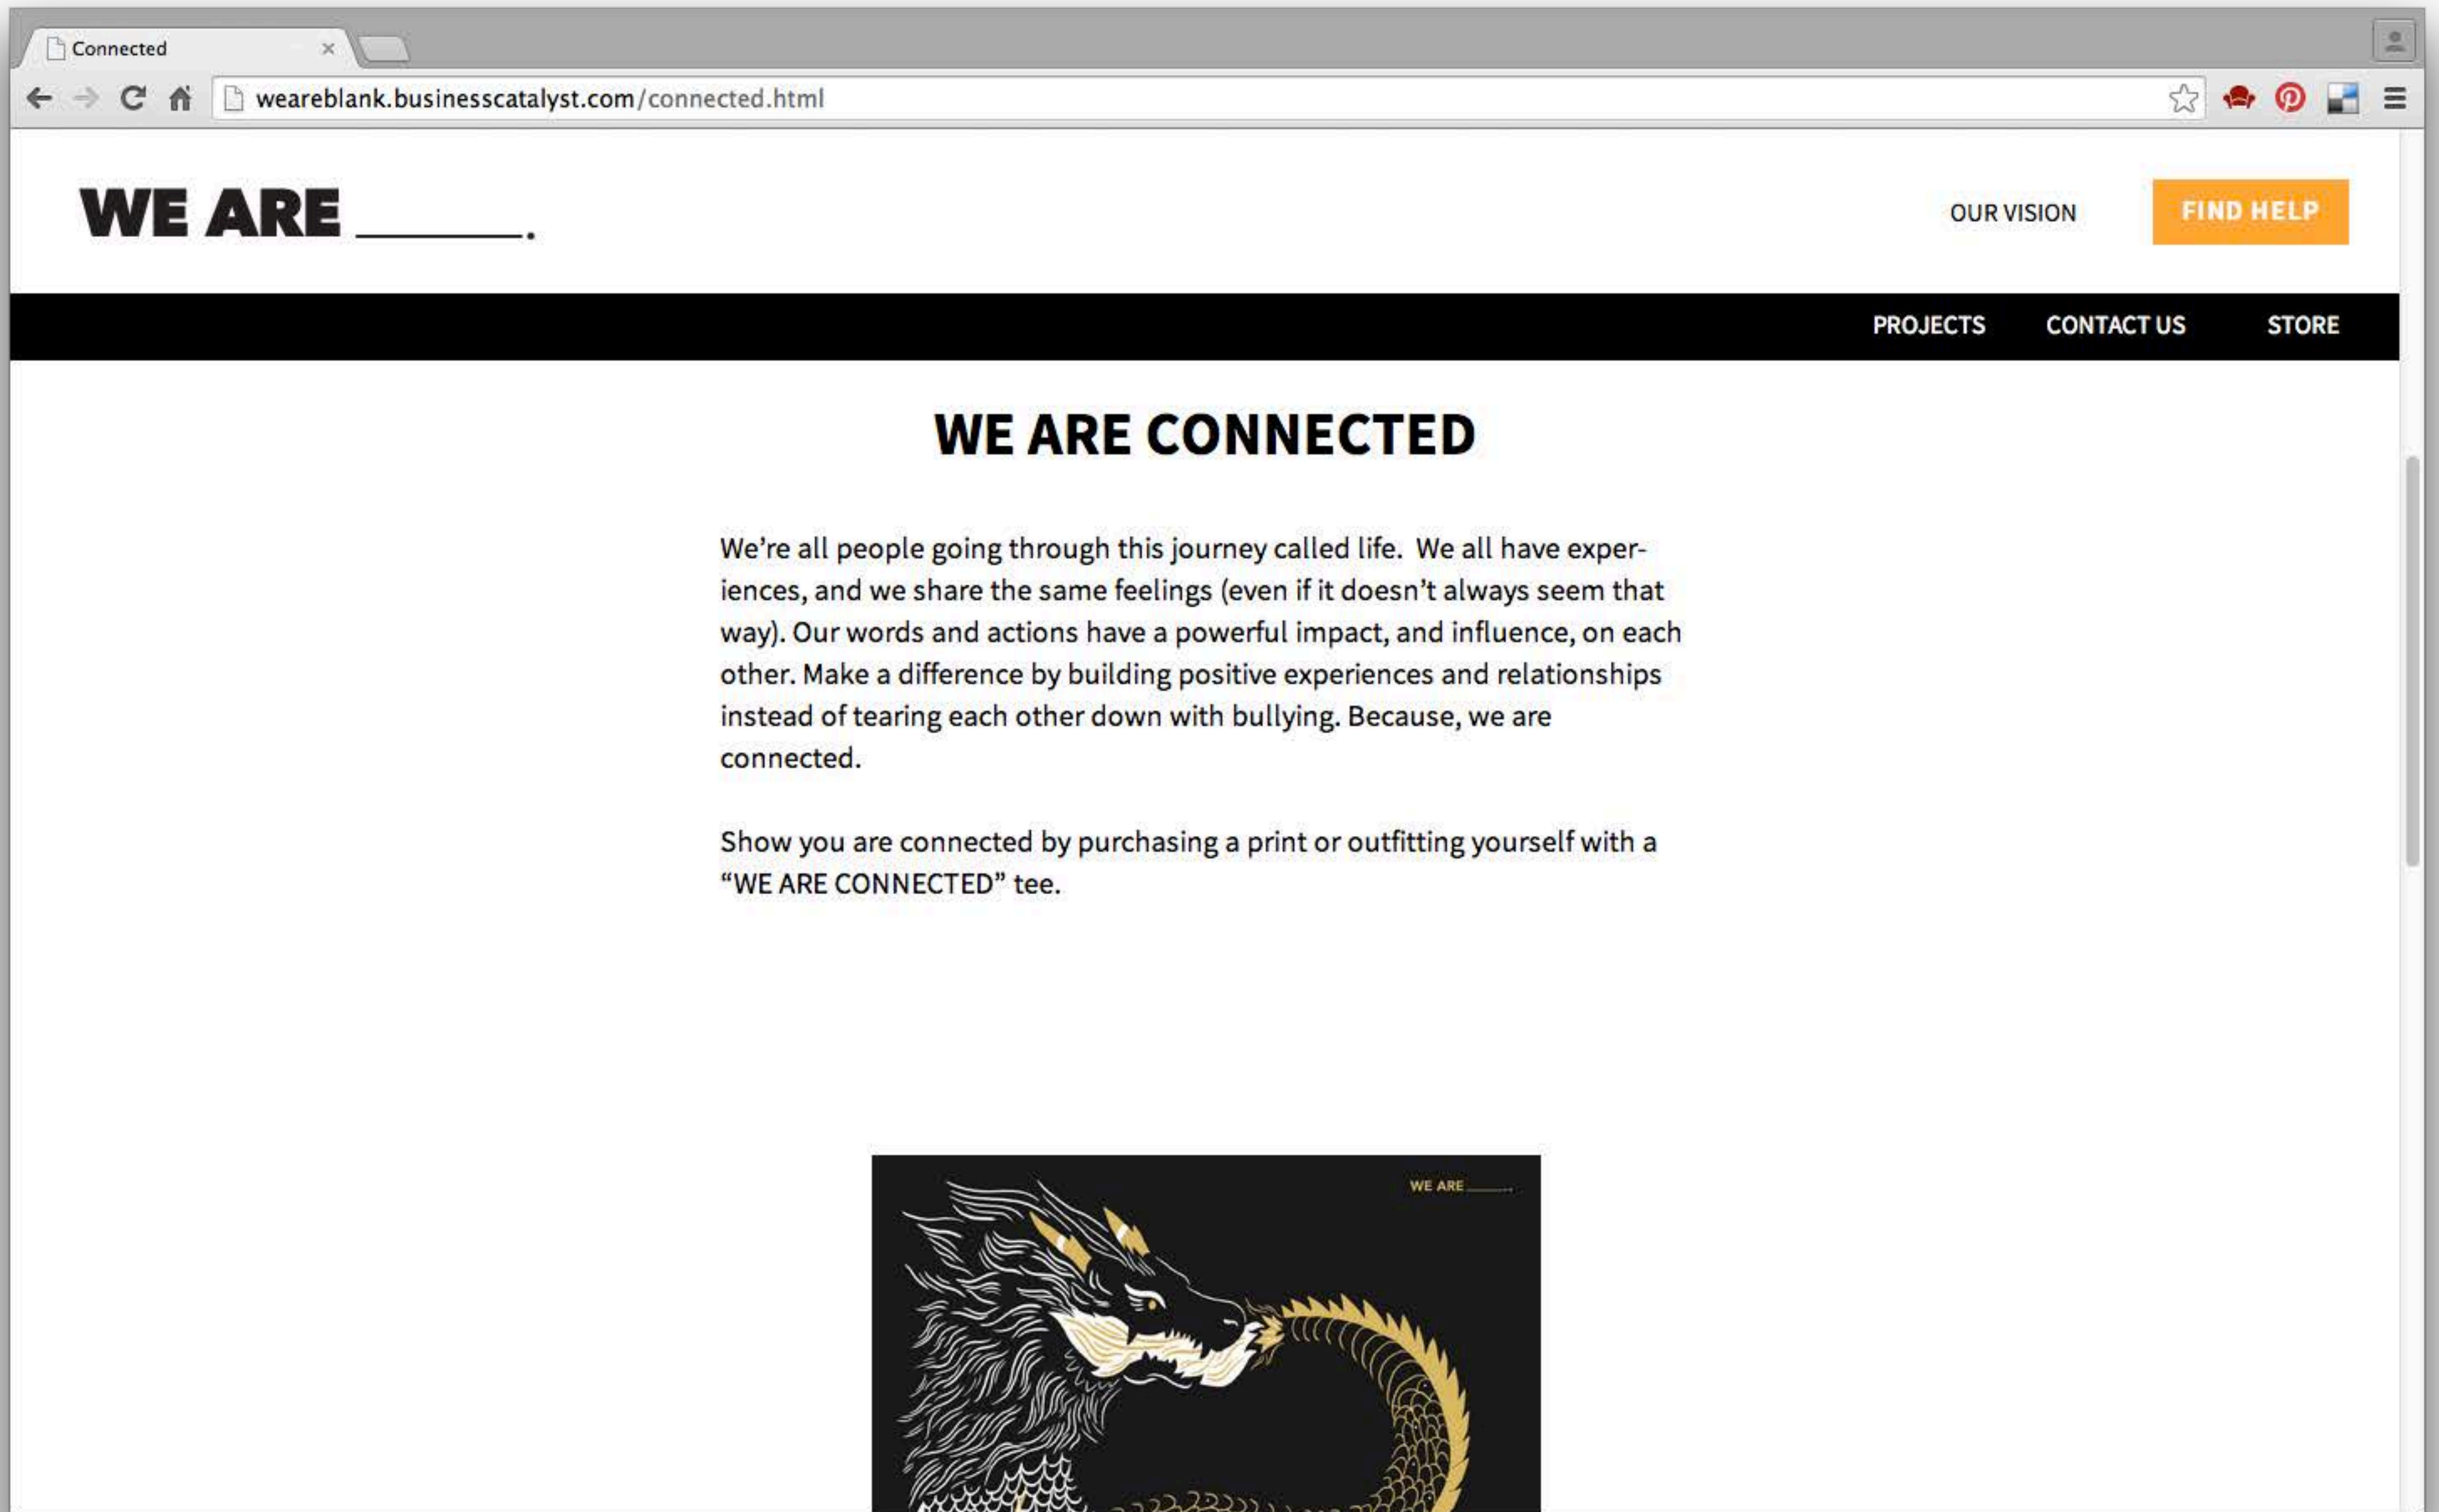

WE ARE CONNECTED. Our actions affect others.

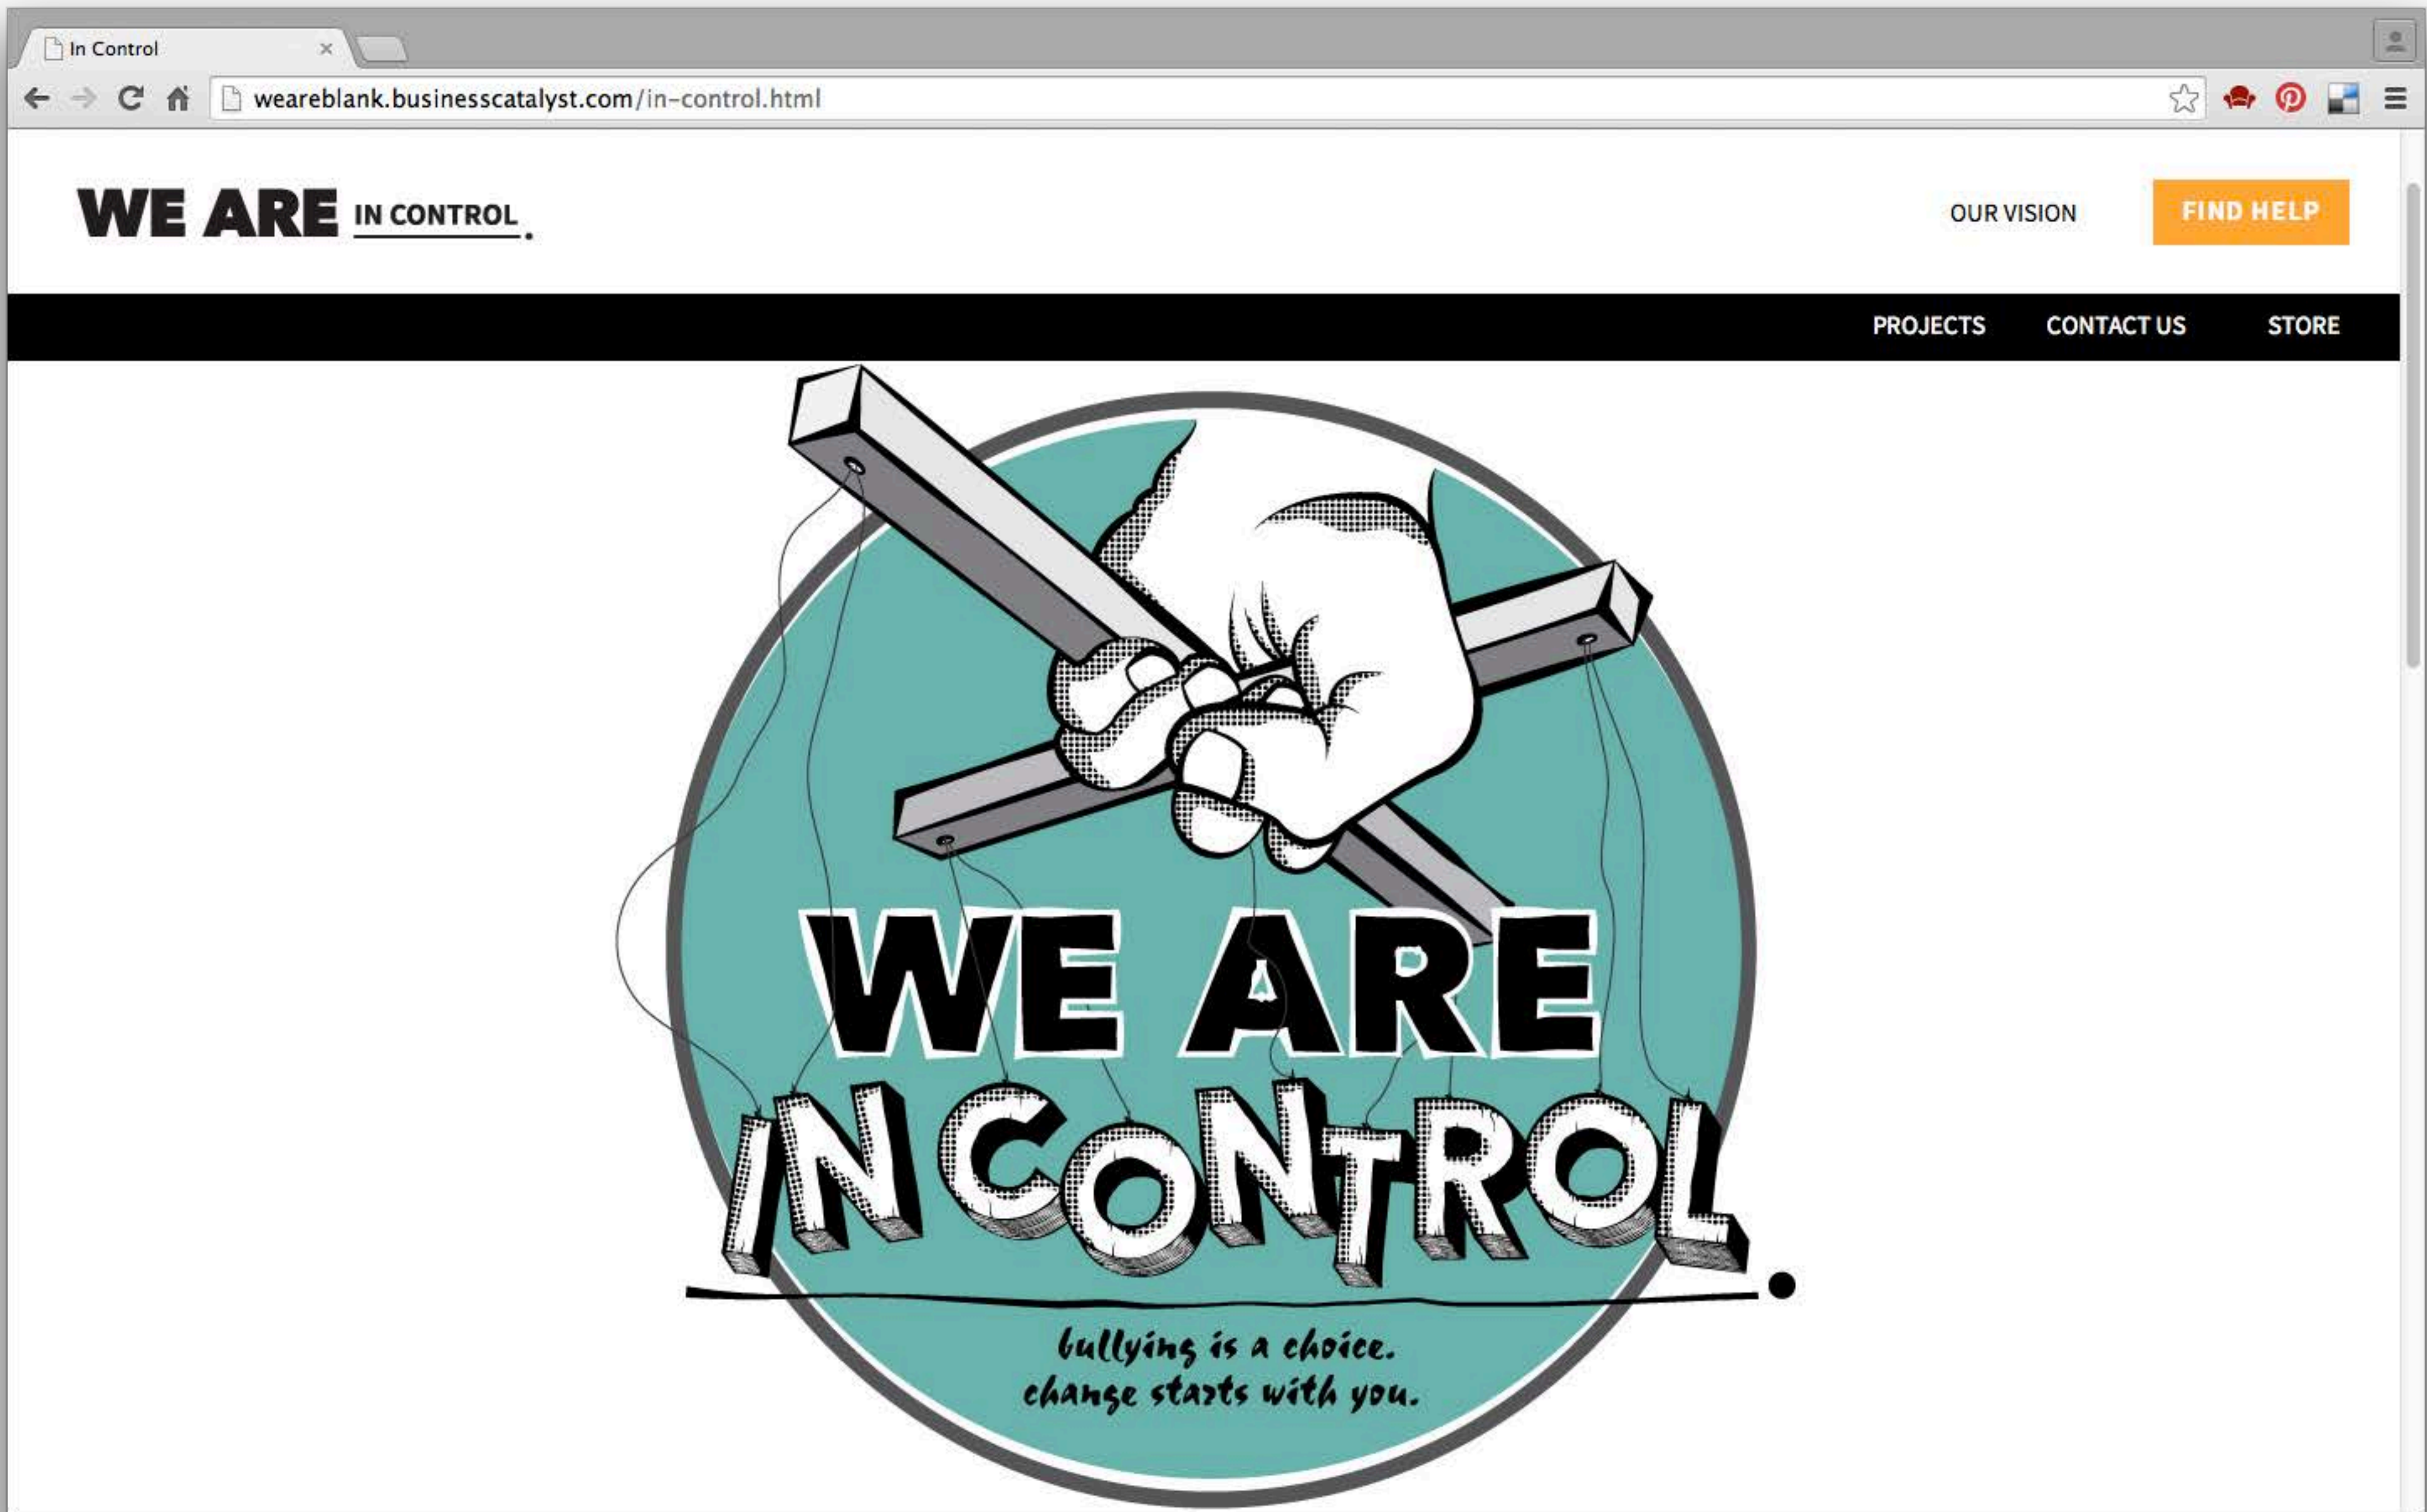

WE ARE HUMAN. Each of us a unique voice and a story to share.

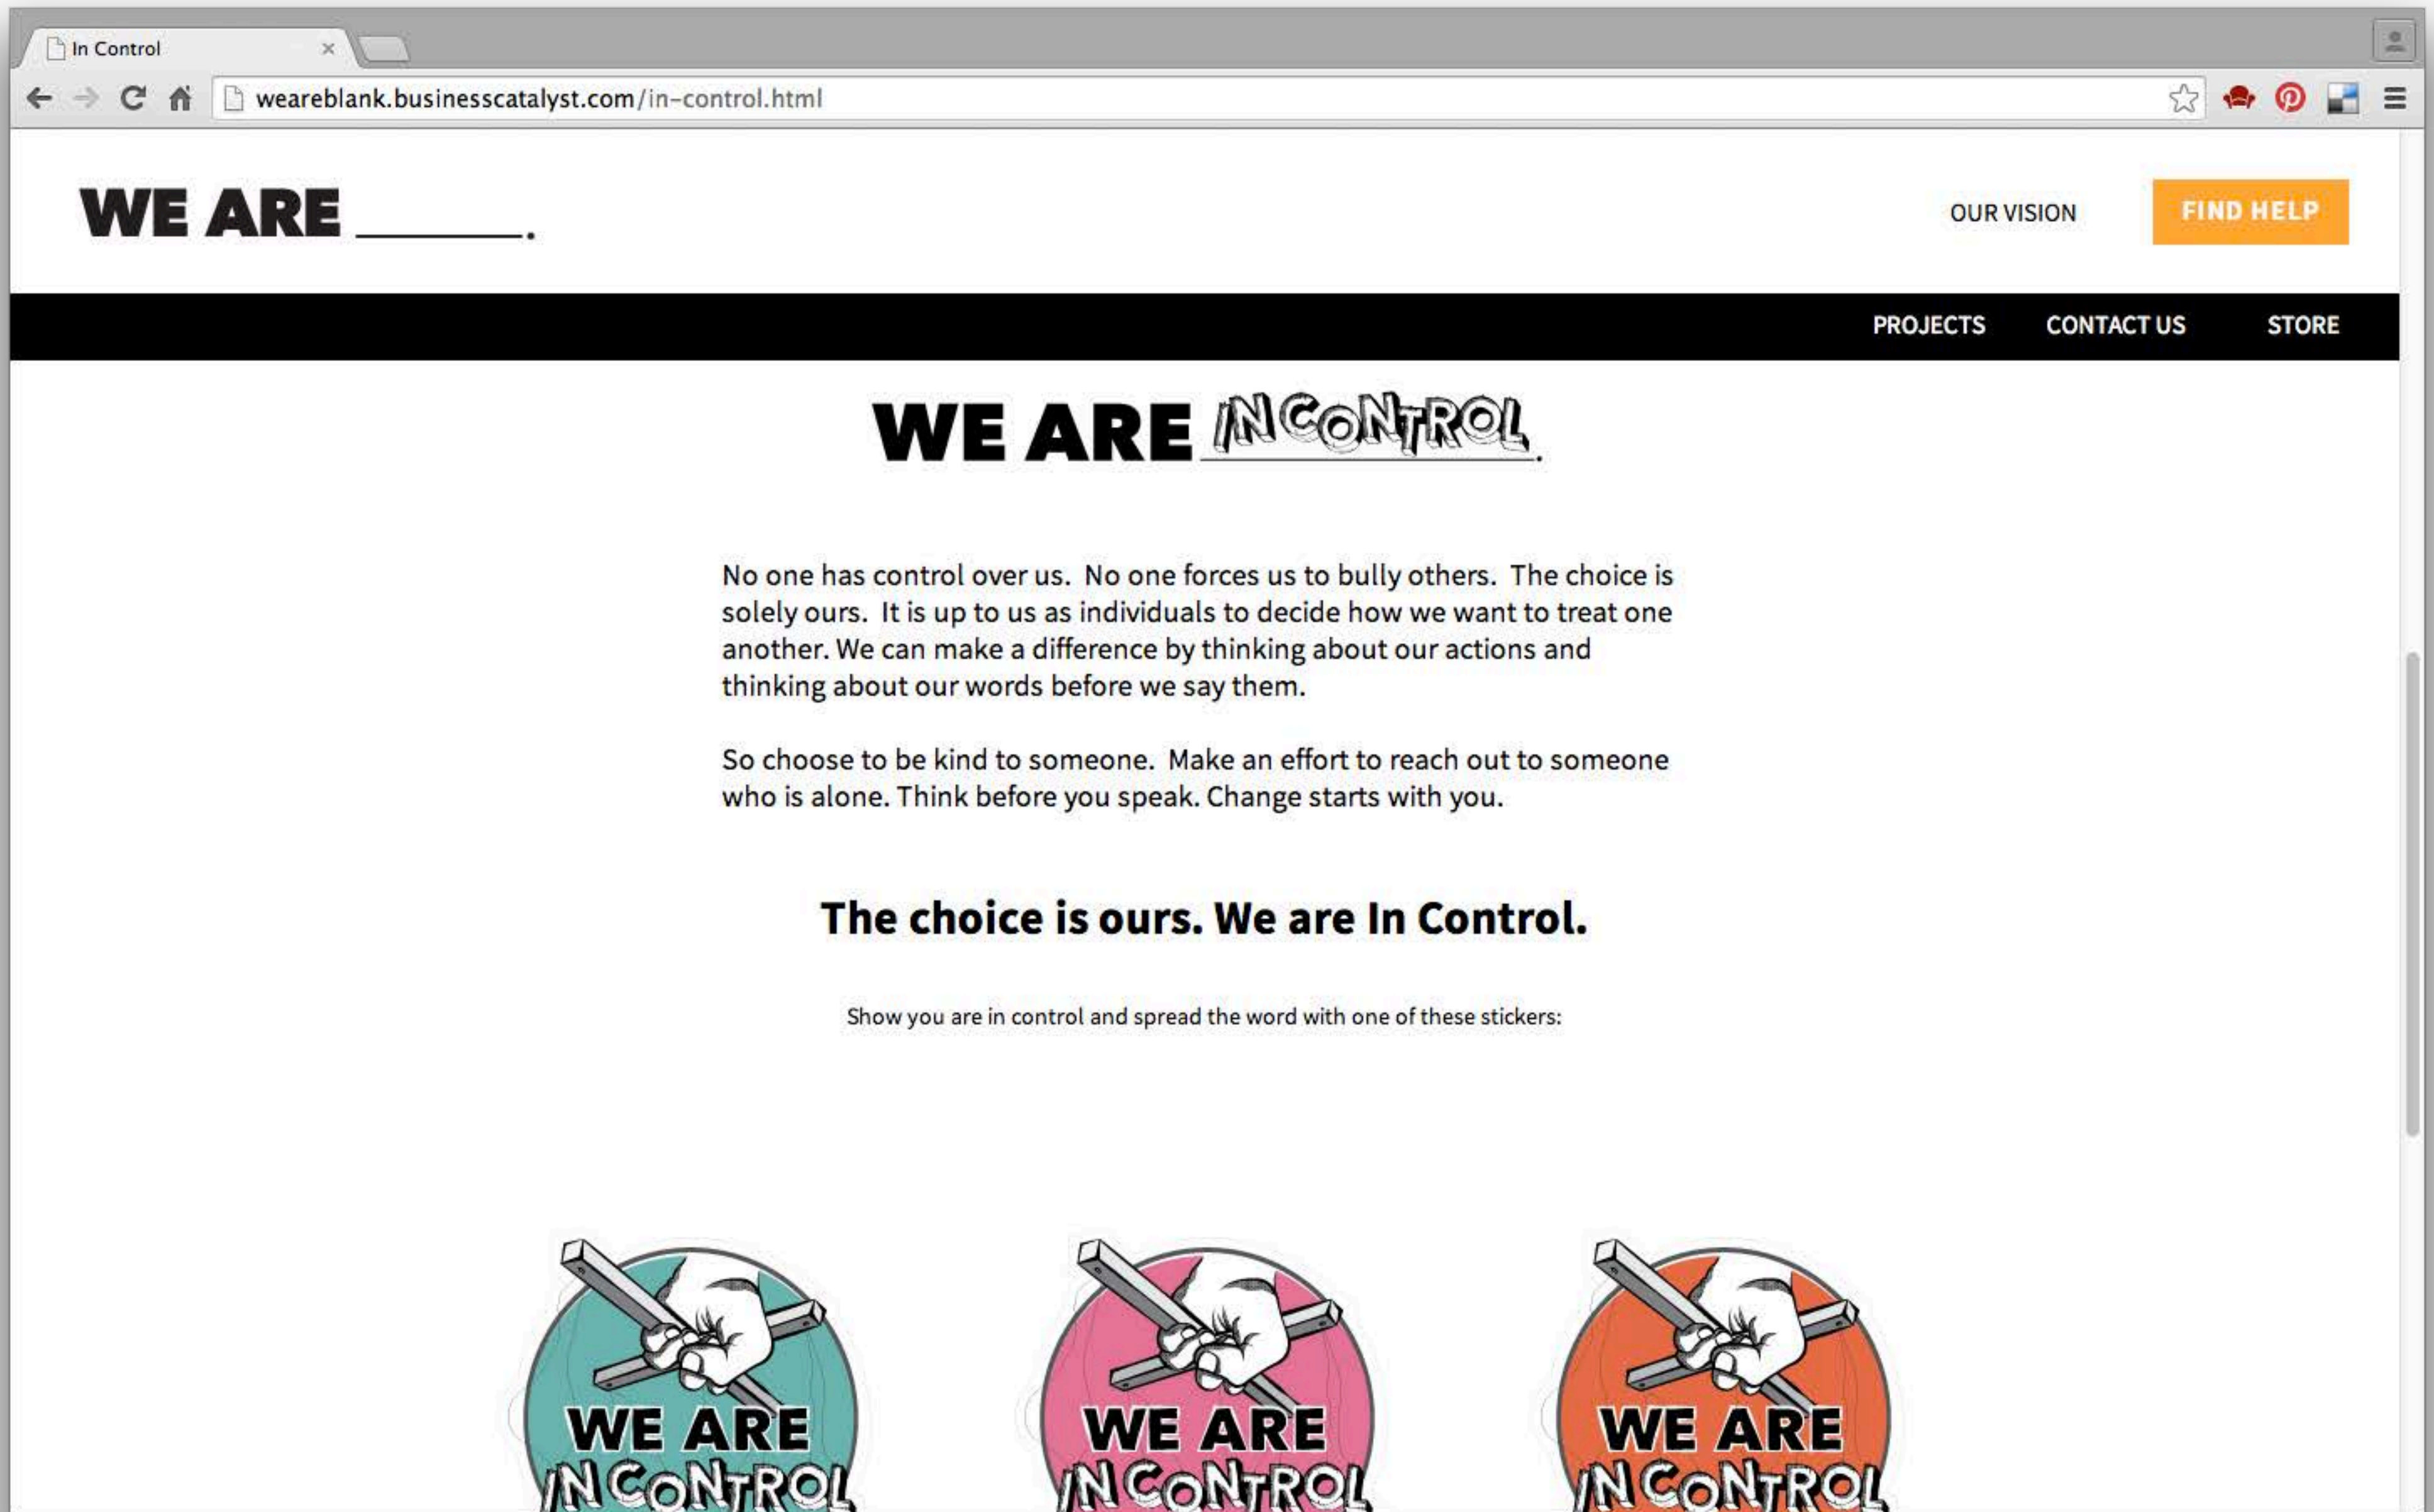

WE ARE _____. Help us fill in the blanks.

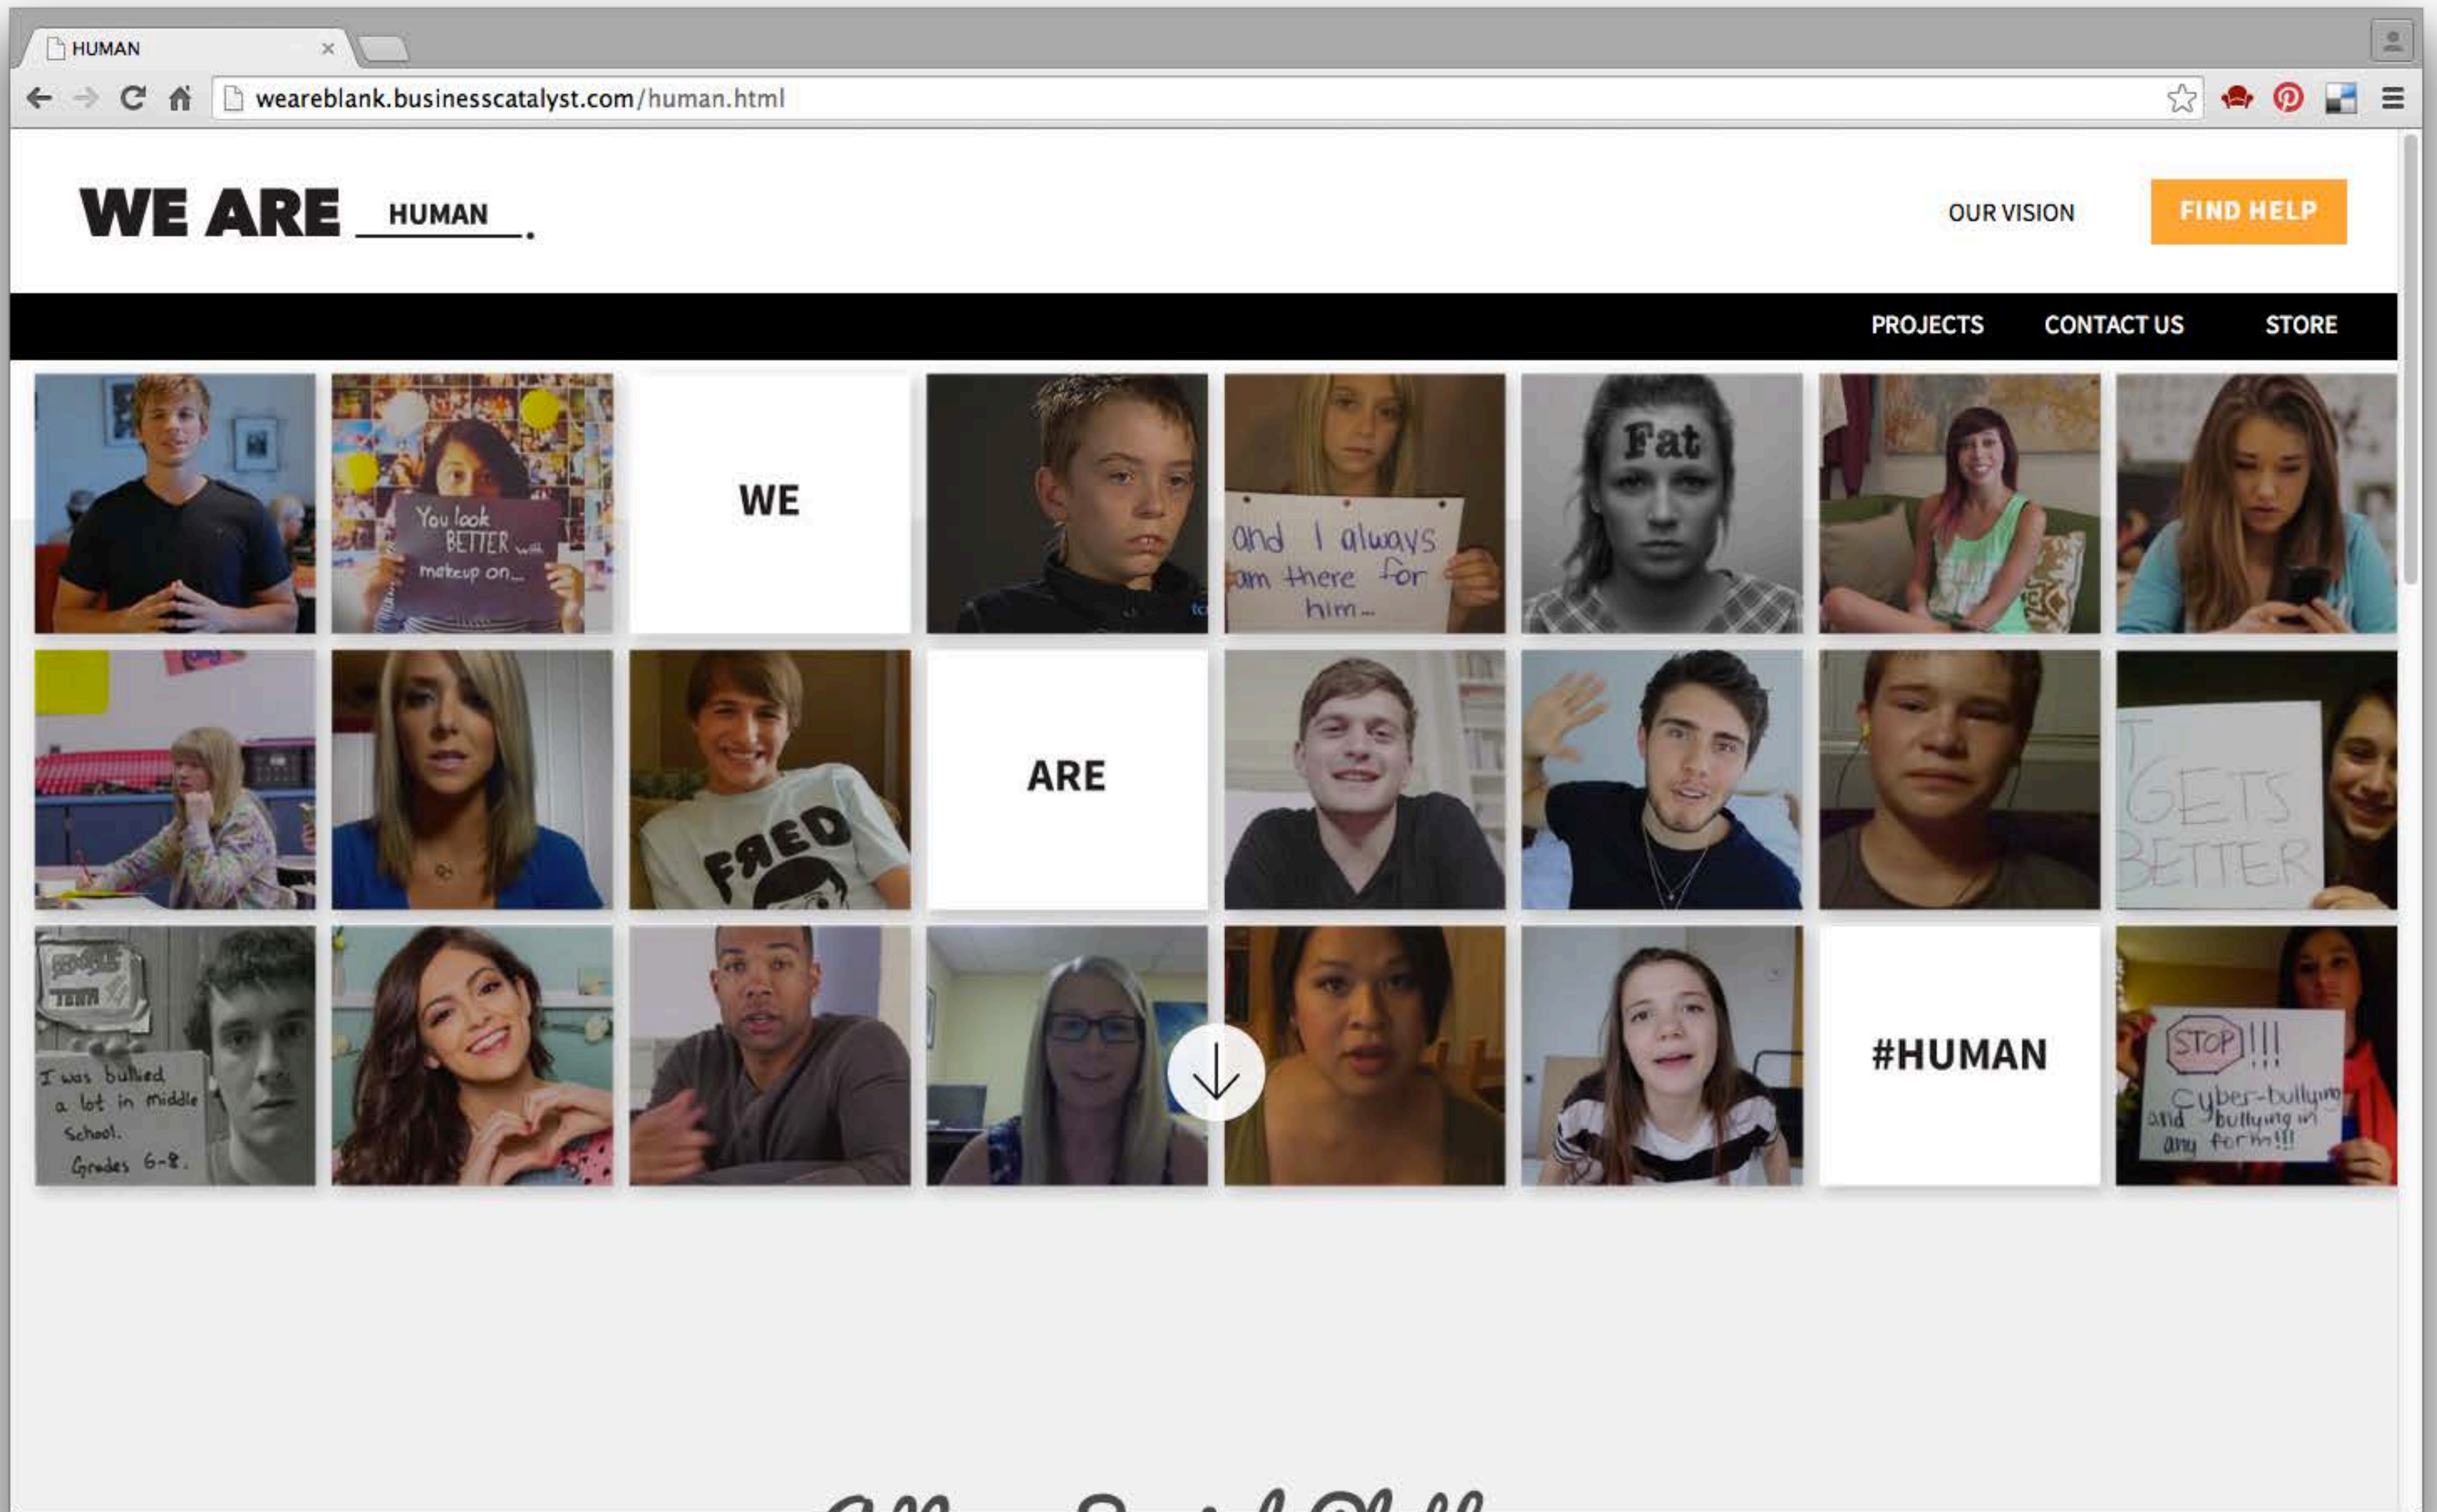

We Are explores these statements through creative projects, and encourages others to join in the conversation by using their own creativity to think about what it means to be _____.

GIVE AND TAKE

No one deserves to be bullied. Bullying can leave people feeling isolated and that they have no one in the world that cares about them. Although it can be easy to forget, we each have qualities that make us great, and we are worth having around.

Whether we realize it or not, what we say to other people can have a big influence on them, for better or for worse.

This installation provides a physical space for people to give someone a reminder of why they are worth it.

Whether we realize it or not, what we say to other people can have a big influence on them, for better or for worse.

This installation provides a physical space for people to give someone a reminder of why they are worth it.

GIVE

On the flipside of things, this piece aims to pick up those who are feeling down about themselves by letting them to browse the Worth It Wall for something that they feel speaks to them.

They are encouraged to take it as a reminder of how much they are cared for, and how much they are needed.
